

Cutbill Defeats Joie Ray in Feature 11-2 Mile Run at Millrose A. A. Games

"Flying Parson" Wins Classic From Record Holder by 20 Yds.

Boston Divinity Student Scores Popular Victory Before 10,000 in the Garden; Thomson, of Dartmouth, Equals Own American Record in Hurdles

By Jack Masters

Harold Cutbill, the "Flying Parson" of the Boston A. A., won the Millrose A. A. games in Madison Square Garden last night, after a thrilling duel with Joie Ray, of the Illinois A. C., the American record holder for the distance. The Boston divinity student defeated the chesty little Ray by twenty yards when it seemed Cutbill had burned himself out in the struggle to keep up front. The time was 6:55 3-5, nine seconds slower than the record made by Ray in 1917 on the same track.

When the feature event was announced Ray took a trial run around the track, amid cheers and some few boos. He walked slowly to the mark, as he was introduced by Announcer Bill Rosebach. Cutbill was the big favorite, however.

Paul Draper, of Butler College, Ind., undertook to set the pace for the field at the gun. Ray moved up from last position to second at the end of the first lap, with Cutbill crowding him. Jim Connolly, of Georgetown University, was a close third.

Pace Changed Often

Starting the third lap, Connolly displaced Draper, carrying Ray and Cutbill along with him. Draper dropped back to fourth place. Ray, dissatisfied with the pace, jumped to the front on the next trip around, Cutbill and Connolly hanging close to Joie's heels. Thus the procession continued until the seventh lap.

Ray made an effort to shake off Cutbill rounding the eighth turn and the latter, in turn, made an effort to shake off Ray. Ray, however, was not to be shaken and he immediately demonstrated to the spectators that he was a real runner by cutting down Ray and taking the lead.

From this point on the pair, away went the race. Ray, in the eighth lap, started the pace and fought relentlessly every time the honor position changed hands. With Ray yards in front of the rest-to-last lap Cutbill again outdistanced the champion and went into a big lead to win by twenty yards.

Earl J. Thomson, of Dartmouth, 100-meter Olympic hurdle champion, and world record holder, equaled one American mark and came within one-fifth of a second of another in winning the events. Thomson's titular effort resulted in tying the mark of 15.5 seconds which he made in the Garden last February.

August Deach, of Newark, representative of the Newark Athletic Club, was mainly responsible for the Canadian's wonderful performance, finished inches behind Thomson after having led to the third hurdle. Joe Loomis, Chicago A. A., was a close third.

One hour earlier Thomson won a hollow victory in the 70-yard high hurdle race, which was expected to be won by a local favorite, Earl J. Thomson, who had won the race in 1917. Thomson, however, was defeated by a local favorite, Earl J. Thomson, who had won the race in 1917.

Another highlight of the evening was the 100-yard dash, won by Earl J. Thomson, who had won the race in 1917. Thomson, however, was defeated by a local favorite, Earl J. Thomson, who had won the race in 1917.

Heddon Sets New High Run Record in Billiard Tourney

CLEVELAND, Feb. 8.—A new American record for class A competition was established by Charles Heddon, of Dowagiac, Mich., when he made a run of 139 points in a match in which he defeated Dr. A. I. Brown, of Cleveland, 300 to 75, in the national amateur 18.2 balliard championship tournament here to-night.

The former champion made his remarkable run in the sixteenth inning. He had complete control of the ball, making his record along the short rail and without any long drives. By his perfect cushion nursing he made other high runs of 67 and 56. His average, 16.4-19, is the highest of the tournament.

Francis and Edgar Appleby, of New York, brothers, met in the first of today's games, Francis winning by a score of 300 to 239. Francis had an average of 7.13-14 and high runs of 62, 43 and 40. Edgar's average was 5.34-41, with high runs of 50, 38 and 37.

After leading most of the way, Robinson, of Chicago, lost the second match to Emil A. Kenner, of Youngstown, 300 to 239. When he needed only one point to go out Lord missed a long mass shot from the short rail, and Kenner ran 18 and won. Kenner had high runs of 39, 36 and 34, against Lord's 65, 37 and 31. Kenner's average was 6.18-47 and Lord's 6.24-46.

Syracuse May Lose Its Baseball Club

SYRACUSE, N. Y., Feb. 8.—Syracuse, baby member of the International League, probably will be minus a baseball club when the 1921 season opens unless the breach between E. C. Landgraf, owner of the club, and E. C. Stearns, who controls the new baseball park, is healed.

Following a conference to-day in which it became known that Landgraf had declined to pay $750 due on last year's rental, because he alleges the park owners had not complied with the terms of his contracts, Landgraf threatens to remove the club to some other city.

Robbie Spurns Deal for Gowdy To Keep Pitching Staff Intact

Manager of Dodgers Refuses to Trade Off Boxman; To "Stand Pat" on Team

Wilbert Robinson, manager of the champion Dodgers, was a visitor from Baltimore yesterday and after a conference with President Charles H. Ebbets at the Flatbush grounds looked up his old New York friends.

Uncle Robbie announced that he had practically decided to stand pat on his team as it now shapes up. He will look to an exceptional pitching staff to carry the big burden. He believes his staff, now that "Dutch" Reuther has been substituted for "Rube" Marquard, is of great potential strength.

"I intend," said Uncle Robbie, "to let nothing discourage the very excellent array of pitching talent which I now possess. I could use a crackjack catcher to good advantage, as last season certain weaknesses were apparent in the backstop. I could have had 'Hank' Gowdy from the Braves, and 'Hank' might have fitted in nicely behind the bat for me, but I would have had to give up one of my best pitchers, and I did not believe 'Hank' worth such a price. We have one or two catchers coming up for trial and it is possible one of them may turn out to be just what we wish."

The general leader of the Dodgers believes he will be in command of the best balanced and most effective staff of pitchers now in major company. And this, irrespective of what the recruits may show. Cadore, Pfeiffer and Grimes are three of the best right-handers in the National League, in the opinion of their manager. And this leaves Mohart, who showed wonderful promise last year, out of the calculation.

Imposing as the right-handed element of the division appears, the southpaw platoon is quite as formidable. Ebbets is quite sure that his team is a baseball name to conjure with. Clarence Mitchell, who is second beaten by the Giants, was one of Robbie's handsy men last year. He not only pitched a great deal but substituted often in the outfield and at first base, as well as to feature in the pinch-hit role. Robinson believes he will be able, the coming year, to use Mitchell exclusively for pitching and thinks he will be 50 per cent better when used regularly.

Cap Is Invented As a Protection For Ball Players

PITTSBURGH, Feb. 8.—A cap to be worn by baseball players for protection against the so-called "bein' bull" has been invented here by four Pittsburgh business men.

The cap, which can be worn by a player throughout the game, has a pneumatic coil constructed within the lines of the headpiece. The athlete wearing the cap has to tilt it slightly forward and to the side of the head when batting. In this manner the cap will absorb the shock of a bad pitch.

The inventors will show their product to Barney Dreyfus, president of the Pittsburgh National League Club, later in the week. It has been tested with pitched balls and has proved successful.

but one terrier he could not handle. This was "Shufflin' Phil" Douglas, who later reformed for McGraw.

Legislatures Continue Drive on Ball Bribes

RALEIGH, N. C., Feb. 8.—The bill defining bribery in connection with professional baseball became a law to-day when it was adopted by the State Senate. It provides for imprisonment not to exceed five years for persons convicted of having offered or accepted bribes in connection with baseball games.

ST. PAUL, Minn., Feb. 8.—A bill to make it a felony to bet on the outcome of a baseball game, and another measure making it a felony to give or offer a baseball player anything to win or lose a game were offered in the Minnesota House to-day and referred to a committee.

Friedman Beats Welling

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Feb. 8.—"Sal" Friedman, Chicago, was given a newspaper decision over Joe Welling, also of Chicago, in a twelve-round bout here to-night.
